Nebraska Infection Control Network
Scholarship Application Form

Purpose:
The Nebraska Infection Control Network is offering a number of small scholarships to defray course expenses for applicants whose attendance may be compromised by financial issues.

Application must be postmarked no later than 1 month prior to starting course date.

Persons eligible to apply for a scholarship must:

✓ Be actively functioning in an infection control capacity.
✓ Be an RN, LPN, or Medical Technologist.

Scholarships:
Three $200 scholarships (waived tuition) may be awarded for each course.

Please complete the following:

Applicant’s Name: ___________________________________________________

Facility Name: _______________________________________________________

Facility address: ____________________________________________________

	Phone: ___________________________________________________________

Length of time employed at above facility: _______________________________

Position held: _______________________________________________________

Percent FTE devoted to Infection Control: _______________________________

List past infection control training dates/locations: _______________________

_________________________________________________________________

Chief administrator: _________________________________________________

	Phone: ___________________________________________________________

Please explain reason you are applying for this financial scholarship:

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

Please mail completed application form to Peg Luebbert, 7115 South 140th Ave
Omaha NE 68138.